Terms and Conditions of Your Participation

The Joint Summer School Programme on Doing Business across Europe is organised and hosted by three universities: TH Rosenheim (Germany), Windesheim University of Applied Sciences (The Netherlands) and La Salle Campus Barcelona, Ramon Llull University (Spain) - referred to as organising units. With application, registration and participation the students - referred to as participants - agree to the following regulations.

Requirements for participation

Participants need to provide a current proof of studies at the time of their application for the programme. Advanced English skills (B2 CEFR) are required to take part in the programme. Common European Framework of Reference for Languages: The CEFR Levels \(coe.int\)

Application

Participants need to apply until 1 May 2023 by sending a complete application by e-mail. Dates and deadlines communicated on the website and advised in writing are binding. The application itself does not entitle the participant to a place on the programme.

Data processing and communication

The applicant's data will be reviewed by the respective organising units and data will be passed on and processed by the organisers for the purpose of the application and participation. Further information regarding the acceptance or rejection of applications will be communicated through the e-mail address provided in the application form. With their application, participants agree to the privacy statements of the organising units and the terms of service of third-party online services.

Registration and payment

Only completed applications will be further processed. After successful application, participants will receive a letter of confirmation including payment details for their choice of programme. A final registration for the programme is not completed until the payment is made. Participants need to pay within the given time frame in order to receive a place. If a participant does not pay on time, the organising units may withdraw their offer.

Fees / pricing

Pricing is based on the chosen programme (single week option or full programme option). Participants from a home university that is an exchange partner institution of any of the organising units receive a reduced partner fee for each programme option. All participants will receive a 10% discount as long as they send in an application by 1 February 2023. Please see application website for total costs.

Cancellation policy / Refund policy

The organising units reserve the right to cancel the programme in the event of unforeseen circumstances. In reasonable cases, participants may also cancel their participation. A cancellation must be made by e-mail. In the case of cancellation before 15 June 2023, a refund is possible. However, a fee for administrative expenses will be charged: € 150 for the full programme or € 50 for cancelled single programme weeks. Bank transfer charges are at the expense of the participant.

Credit Validation

If accepted to the programme, credit validation and certificate will be provided based on attendance of mandatory sessions and successful examination of the programmes. For the recognition of the rewarded credits at their home university, participants will consult their academic advisor to receive credit transfer approval before applying.

Costs and Liability disclaimer

Attending the programme does not imply any insurance coverage by or compensation claims against the organising units.

Release statement

I hereby transfer the rights to TH Rosenheim/Windesheim University of Applied Sciences and La Salle University Ramon Llull, for the photo/video/audio recordings of myself made during Joint Summer School programme and grant the Universities communications department permission to use this footage in unchanged or modified form (processed by third parties) for the media and purposes specified below. I hereby waive my rights to identification and compensation. All other rights to the images, including all copyrights and other commercial property rights which relate to the photo/video and audio material remain with the copyright owner.

The footage will be used for the universities representative purposes as well as for individual degree programmes. In this sense, the footage will be used for advertising purposes, especially in the context of virtual orientation to university studies, both in print and online (advertisements, advertorials, posters, banners, flyers, radio), on the website, for publications (brochures, community publications, newspapers, research reports, newsletters), for online courses (such as MOOC, VHB) and the universities social media channels (Facebook, Instagram, LinkedIn, Xing, YouTube). In addition, the footage can also be shown at trade fairs or public appearances by the universities.

The consent may be revoked at any time at the University communications department. Insofar as the declaration of consent is not revoked, it remains valid indefinitely.
