Language Tandem & International Buddy Programme

You can design your exchange the way you like. Where, how and how often you meet is up to you. Here are some suggestions for you. Would you like to have a participation certificate? You can use that as one of the components of the Certificate Intercultural Competence+, see Reflection report below.

Have fun expanding your horizons 😊 !

1. Meet & Greet

Arrange a first meeting and get to know each other.

Reflection: How do people welcome each other in your countries?

- Greeting among friends
- Greeting within the family
- How to greet a stranger
- Facial expressions and gestures while greeting

2. Music

Choose a song in your language and listen to it together, e.g. on YouTube.

- Which song did you choose and why?
- Language(s) used in the song
- What traditional music do you have, where is it played, and who listens to it?

Reflection report

Would you like to have a participation certificate? You can use that as one of the components of the Certificate Intercultural Competence+

- Write a reflection report or make a video on at least eight of the topics above. It is not important to answer all questions for each topic. What is important is the language and cultural learning process, the comparison of the languages and cultures and the reflection on your own language and culture.
- Add a picture for each topic
- Add a word, phrase or expression in your languages for each topic with translation, example phrase and image to understand the meaning
- The report consists of 5 written pages plus pictures or a compiled video of 3-5 minutes in German, English or any other language with German subtitles.
- Send your reflection report / video to barbara.lembecke@th-rosenheim.de
