What documents must be submitted?
The TGGS Academic Affairs for Exchange Student Program requires the following documents:
1. Completion of the Exchange Student Application Form.
2. Exchange Student Nomination from your university
3. One page of Motivation Letter indicating your plans for graduate study at TGGS (e.g., field of study for taking courses, research interests for doing the internship or master thesis, etc.) and your future professional career.
4. Curriculum Vitae (CV) or Resume on your personal/academic/professional profile.
5. Official copy of final transcript upon completion of your university course work.
6. Proof of English Test Score, since our program is conducted in English.
7. Official copy of Health and Accidental Insurance for the period of study in Thailand (can be sent after receiving the acceptance letter).
8. A copy of your identification card or passport.
9. Straight face picture (by email).
Send application to academic@tggs.kmutnb.ac.th; sending the application documents just by email is alright (no hard copies required).
