Getting to Rosenheim

Route Munich Airport – Rosenheim

From Munich Airport it takes approximately 1.5 hours to get to Rosenheim by suburban train (S-Bahn) and regional train (Regionalbahn).

Take the suburban train S8 direction Munich East (duration appr. 30 Min.) and get there on the train Meridian direction Salzburg or Kufstein (duration appr. 35 Min.).

Please note: Both trains start at Munich central station and will stop at Munich East (München Ost).

Quelle: https://www.meridian-bob-brb.de/de/meridian/linien/linien-und-fahrplaene-des-meridian
Costs Munich Airport – Rosenheim:
Single ride: appr. 22.50 EUR

Suggestion (two to five persons): "Bayern Ticket“, 26.00 EUR per passenger + 8.00 EUR per extra passenger, max. 5 passengers

"Rosenheim Hochschule“ railway station

Rosenheim Technical University of Applied Sciences has its own railway station located just a few minutes away from the university campus.
Take the train from platform 1a and reach the station “Rosenheim Hochschule“ in just two minutes.
Check Google maps for a walking route to the campus.

Costs:
Single ride: appr. 1.60 EUR

By Bus – from Rosenheim main train station

The journey from Rosenheim main station to the TH Rosenheim campus takes about 15 minutes.
Take any bus to the bus station “Stadtmitte“ (city centre). From there you have to change for

- Line 1, direction Unterfürstätt or
- Line 12, direction Küpferling, bus stop “Prinzregentenstraße / Berufsschule“
  (5 minutes walk to the campus).

Costs:
Single ride: appr. 2.00 EUR

Connections can be checked at the DB website of the German Railways. For real-time information and up-to-date departure and arrival times we recommend the App DB Navigator.

Address:
Technische Hochschule
Rosenheim
Hochschulstraße 1
83022 Rosenheim

Further information and the campus site map can be found here.