Letter of Confirmation

The participant mentioned below is an applicant of a scholarship rewarded by Rosenheim Technical University of Applied Sciences.

It is hereby confirmed that ☐ Mr/ ☐ Ms (Name, first name) ____________________________________________

from Rosenheim Technical University of Applied Sciences will be accepted as a participant from (day/ month/ year) __________________ to ________________(day/ month/ year)

Please note: Please fill in the actual period related to the event/project from the first day of stay (including orientation days) to the last day (including final event of the program) of the participant.

at our institution (name of host institution, city, country):

_______________________________________________________________________

_______________________________________________________________________

at the event (summer school, workshop, academic project)

_______________________________________________________________________

_______________________________________________________________________

Name of signatory: ________________________________________________

Function of signatory: ________________________________________________

Date, Place: _________________________________________________________

Stamp and Signature: ________________________________________________

International Office of Rosenheim Technical University of Applied Sciences:
Hochschulstrasse 1
83024 Rosenheim
Germany

Mr. Florian Thoma
Phone: +49 8031 805 -2683
Email: international@th-rosenheim.de